Re: AMO Development, LLC, et al. v. Alcon Inc., et al.,
C.A. No. 20-842 (CFC)

Dear Judge Connolly:

The parties in the above-captioned action jointly submit herewith their [Proposed] Scheduling Order. There are no disputes on the proposed schedule. The parties highlight, however, two scheduling details. Given the number of patents asserted by each side in this case (16 by Plaintiffs, 5 by Defendants), the parties propose that the Markman hearing length be increased from three to five hours, either all on one day or split across consecutive days, according to the Court's preference. Additionally, given the number of patents and the copyright claims at issue, the parties propose that each side may file five motions in limine.

Respectfully,

/s/ Brian P. Egan
